Truman and the Bomb

I. Introduction
   A. Introductory information
   B. Introductory information
   C. Introductory information
   D. Thesis: Truman’s decision to drop the atomic bomb was the best decision for the United States.

II. Background information

III. Reason 1: Quicker end to war
   A. Japanese resistance to surrender
   B. Effectiveness of bomb

IV. Reason 2: U.S. Maintaining of strong world position
   A. Tension with Soviet Union
   B. “Nuclear Umbrella” in Western Europe

V. Reason 3: Lessened loss of lives with dropping of bomb
   A. Statistics of lives lost in either
   B. Projected lives saved by dropping bomb

VI. Counterargument: Japan about to surrender

VII. Conclusion
   A. Thesis restatement
   B. Concluding information
   C. Concluding information
   D. Concluding information
   E. Clincher